

John CONNOLLY, B'98

Vice President Russia & CIS
Valeant Pharmaceuticals
Moscow, Russia

John Connolly is the Vice President of Valeant Pharmaceuticals, based in Moscow, Russia. John has worked in the pharmaceutical industry since 1991, beginning his career with Eli Lilly holding several sales, marketing, business development and general management assignments. In 2002 he joined Wyeth Pharmaceuticals and held various General Manager assignments for Russia, Romania and Southern Balkan area. He then joined a private venture PharmSwiss SA as Regional General Manager South East Europe until its acquisition by Valeant in 2011

John has a BSc (Mgmt.) from Trinity College Dublin and a Diploma in Russian Studies and Foreign Trade from the Trade Management Institute, Dublin. In 1998 he received his MBA from Duke University, Fuqua School of Business through the GEMBA Program.