

Rishi Kapoor, GEMBA '01

Chief Financial Officer
Investcorp Bahrain

Rishi Kapoor is the Chief Financial Officer of Investcorp, and a member of its five-person Executive Management Committee. Rishi is a member of the Firm's apex investment / commitment committee and his role includes oversight of the Firm's day-to-day operations, strategic planning, balance sheet management and significant interaction with key external stakeholders of the firm including the Board, shareholders, clients, lenders, ratings agencies, regulators, auditors and advisors. Rishi has direct responsibility for all corporate financial management functions across the Firm's three offices in US, Europe and Middle East covering Treasury, Risk Management, Investor Relations, Financial Controls, Business Support, IT, Investment Administration, Operations and Internal Controls.

Rishi Kapoor holds a Masters in Business Administration from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business (GEMBA 2001), and a Bachelor of Technology in Electrical & Computer Engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology in Kanpur. Arabian Business listed Rishi amongst the most influential Indians in the Gulf in its "Indian Power List – 2010".