

Vikram Singhania, B '91
Deputy Managing Director
JK Organization

Vikrampati Singhania is part of the fourth generation of a family business, JK Organization, one of the biggest industrial houses in India. JK Organization is a $3 billion group with multiple business, product lines, and locations. The companies in the group have a diverse portfolio, including automotive tires and tubes, paper & pulp, cement, v-belts, oil seals, power transmission systems, hybrid seeds, woolen textiles, readymade apparels and lifestyle products, sugar, food & dairy products, and clinical studies.

Apart from holding directorship in various group companies, Singhania is the Managing Director of Fenner India Ltd., and Deputy Managing Director, JK Tyre and Industries Ltd. He is also directly responsible for the group's sugar, agri-genetics and clinical trials businesses, and leads new business opportunities, like the group's foray into sectors like power and defense. Singhania is also deeply involved in the motors sports activity of the organization.

He is associated with the following professional organizations: Managing Committee of Assocham; CII, Expert Committee on Bio Technology at Confederation of Indian Industry; Managing Committee of Indian Sugar Mills Association; Board of Governance at Indian Institute of Learning and Management; Board of Directors of Young Presidents Organization.

Singhania has an MBA from Fuqua School of Business, Duke University.