Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business uses a unique global approach to business education and research. Recognized as one of the top business schools in the world, Fuqua offers a portfolio of educational solutions designed to meet the needs of students at all stages of their lives and careers.

Whether you choose to study full time at our campus in the USA or stay at your job and learn through one of our top-ranked executive MBA programs, you will earn the same MBA degree. Each program format offers Duke MBA students a dynamic learning environment and is taught by the same outstanding faculty (ranked No.1 in the world by Financial Times in 2009).

The Duke MBA—Daytime
Fuqua’s Daytime MBA program is one of the top-rated programs in the world, featuring a world-class, multi-disciplinary faculty and a curriculum designed to provide students with a comprehensive view of the global economy. The Duke MBA provides outstanding preparation for a career in today’s complex, multicultural and multinational business environment by providing students with the opportunity to concentrate in an area of interest within a general management framework.

The Duke MBA—Cross Continent
This unique 16-month program is geared toward high-potential professionals with two to nine years of work experience. The program maximizes flexibility by combining week-long residencies in Russia, China, India, Dubai, London, and the US with Internet-enabled distance learning from anywhere in the world. It offers the opportunity to study in locations that will shape the future of global business while networking with an outstanding group of classmates from over 20 different countries.

The Duke MBA—Global Executive
This pioneering program was designed for executives with at least 10 years of work experience and global responsibilities. It was the first program of its kind to combine traditional teaching with Internet-enabled distance learning. Residencies in Asia, Latin America, Europe and North America enhance understanding of international business as well as wonderful networking opportunities with global business leaders.

Master in Management Studies (MMS): Foundations of Business
The new Master of Management Studies in Foundations of Business is a pre-experience master's degree providing basic entry-level business skills. This one-year program focuses on building the technical skills and capabilities needed to obtain, and succeed in, entry-level analyst positions in finance, marketing, consulting, and general management.
