Whether you’re a recruiter, employer, alumnus, student, or prospective student, below you will find valuable information about the 2014-15 full-time positions accepted by our Master of Management Studies (MMS): Foundations of Business Students. Data are current as of November 1, 2015.

US Employment Distribution

Geographic distribution of MMS graduates who accepted jobs in the US:
- Northeast
- Mid-Atlantic
- South
- Midwest
- Southwest
- West

“I didn’t want to pursue a journey that only possessed a single route, but one that provided endless pathways for opportunities, learning, and growth. With that said, the answer was simple in terms of choosing a program and school – the answer was Team Fuqua!”
- Brandon Benzin
  Class of 2014

Industries

Leading industries with a representative list of companies hiring at least one MMS student from the class of 2015:

- Consulting:
  - Accenture
  - Deloitte & Touche
  - Ernst & Young
  - McKinsey & Company
  - Public Consulting Group

- Financial Services:
  - American Express
  - Capital One
  - Credit Suisse
  - HSBC
  - Morgan Stanley

- Technology:
  - Apple
  - Facebook
  - IBM
  - Net Orbit
  - Oracle

- Consulting:
  - Bloomberg
  - Delta Air Lines
  - Duke University
  - FleishmanHillard
  - McKinney

- Other:
  - Adidas
  - Anheuser-Busch
  - Boeing
  - BMW
  - Johnson & Johnson

Sources of Employment

Percent of MMS graduates hired based on employment sources:
- Graduate Facilitated
- Fuqua Facilitated

Salaries by Function

Salary averages by professional function including the percentage of graduates working in that function:

Because of rounding, total percentages do not always equal 100.

The full employment report is available at www.fuqua.duke.edu/employment-stats.